

LEVRAM THE GREAT

THE COLONIAL CONJURER

Meet Levram the Great, an 18th Century magician who claims to have traveled the world where he has performed for heads of state (as well their feet)!

Levram's program appeals to all ages. The show is paced fast enough for 21st Century audiences; but maintains historical accuracy. Audience members are encouraged to participate loudly in the show! Volunteers are chosen to assist Levram on stage in hilarious routines so have your 21st Century portrait maker (camera) ready!

Levram is the Official Colonial Conjuror of Historic Philadelphia. He has also performed for Sunoco's Welcome America celebration, Penn's Landing, Fort Mifflin, City Tavern, Brandywine Battlefield, Valley Forge National Park, Paoli Battle field, Jefferson's Poplar Forest, Tryon Palace, and for countless Colonial faires, schools and private parties.

"The young, and the young at heart, enjoyed watching and being part of this magical experience. If you are looking for an entertaining magic show which is amusing and keeps the audience on their toes, I highly recommend The Colonial Conjuror" Brandywine Battlefield Park

"Levram's conjuring was truly enjoyed by all adding a special touch of magic to our event" Paoli Battlefield
